FOREWORD

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS and the Committees of Dallas Art Association which have undertaken, through the Grand Central Art Galleries of New York, to present this Sixth Art Exhibition, I avail myself of this opportunity to extend greetings to the people of Dallas, to the Artists in attendance upon the Exhibition, and to the Grand Central Art Galleries:

To the people of Dallas, because they so rapidly are becoming art conscious,—this section's romantic and historic background, its vivid and varied atmosphere, topography and climate, its stimulating cosmopolitanism and picturesque racial strata, its youth and vital enthusiasms, all make good soil for art production and art appreciation, and this is proving true in Dallas;

To the artists in attendance, because not only have they sent us the output of their hearts and hands, but also, they have actually loaned us themselves;

To the Grand Central Art Galleries, because their fine standing, rich experience and pleasing diplomacy have made possible the gathering in the Exhibition of the distinguished group of fine paintings and other art objects, here so beautifully displayed;

To all of these we extend cordial welcome and warm expressions of friendship.

It is the job of an Art Association to make a contribution of art to those who are art sensitive, and to help to kindle art responsiveness in those who may conceive themselves to be unresponsive to such stimuli. Somewhere in this great southwestern region there can be created an art center of international importance. Your Art Association would like for Dallas to become that center. This fine exhibition ought to have its influence in that direction.

THE MANAGEMENT of the "Grand Central Art Galleries" welcomes the opportunity to make this initial bow in Dallas—that famous city of the Southwest, which has shown more active interest in American Art than any of its sisters.

The cream of our entire collections have been skimmed for Dallas, and Mr. Walter L. Clark, President of the Grand Central Art Galleries; Mr. Erwin S. Barrie, Manager and Director, and his two associate managers Mr. W. Wesley Wiseman and Mr. George T. Nelson will attend the inauguration of the exhibition and both Mr. Wiseman and Mr. Nelson will remain throughout its entire duration, and will be happy to meet the people of Dallas and furnish them with information and prices regarding paintings and sculpture on display.

A WORD FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE GRAND CENTRAL ART GALLERIES OF NEW YORK

THE GRAND CENTRAL ART GALLERIES have taken the greatest interest in this, our first exhibition in the City of Dallas. We will do our utmost to make the exhibition a success and one that will be an art event in your community.

Our organization was started about three years ago for the express purpose of bringing the best work of our living American painters and sculptors before the American public in a broad way. Being located in the Grand Central Railway Terminal, we not only have large galleries that are visited annually by about 150,000 people, but we have great facilities for sending exhibitions to distant points. The ordinary boxing and carting of a large picture exhibition is an expense that is almost prohibitive, while in our case we load the pictures and bronzes in an express car without any boxing or hauling, and they are shipped direct to the place of exhibit.

The Grand Central Art Galleries is run entirely in the interest of the painters and sculptors. None of the officers or trustees receive any remuneration whatever.

This country's success in a material way is well known to the world at large. Nothing like it has been seen since the world began. This land of ours has been made in a comparatively few years from a wilderness into a powerful nation. Material things, naturally, must come first, but after we are thoroughly housed, clothed and fed we begin to look about for the higher things of life. There is already being made manifest a tremendous movement toward the development of beauty all over this country. It is only just beginning, however, to be recognized that we have a larger and stronger group of painters and sculptors in the United States than all the European countries combined.

This is something we may well be proud of, as it points to a brilliant future. An artist of any kind is a man who produces things of beauty, and deserves the heartiest support of all those who appreciate the importance of this to our nation. Pictures in the home give pleasure that constantly increases as time passes; anyone who has tried it will testify to this.

We hope that the interest aroused by our first exhibition in Dallas will be such as to insure making it an annual event.
